

Bug Hotels

D.T

Term 5

What should I already know?

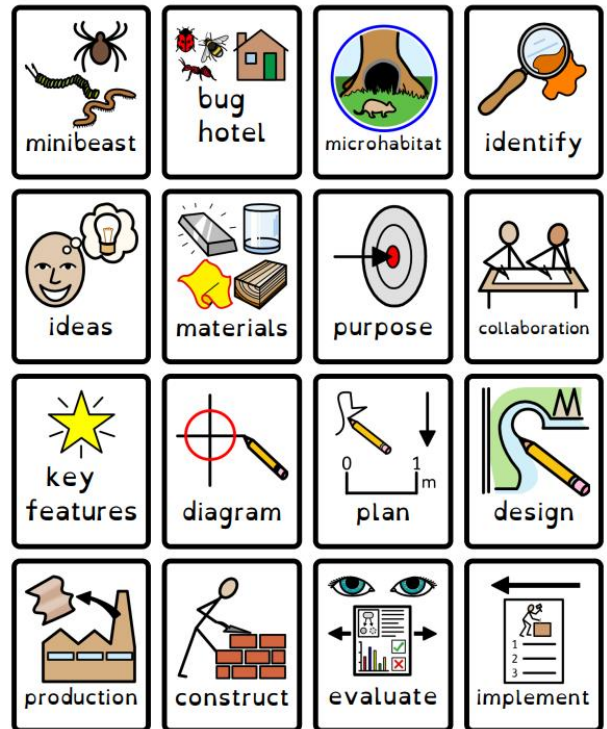

- To know some different techniques for joining different materials.
- To know how to use some materials and tools with care and precision.
- To know how to select from and use a range of tools and equipment to perform practical tasks.

What am I going to learn?

I am going to learn:

- To be able to understand how a product works and how it is used.
- To be able to identify the materials used to make a product.
- To be able to express an opinion about a product.
- To know how to develop ideas by drawing and planning.
- To know how to select from and use a range of tools and equipment to perform practical tasks (for example, cutting, shaping, joining and finishing).
- To be able to design purposeful, functional and appealing products for themselves and other users based on design criteria.

Key Vocabulary

Faversham Abbey Physic garden