Encounter: Learning about life: providing openings for spiritual development through an exploration of identity and personal values. Opportunities for spiritual development are planned for across the whole curriculum but most particularly in RE and collective worship.
Reflection: Learning from life: understanding an inner meaning of self and identity – critical reasoning and big questions.
What makes me happy? What do I do in my spare time that I like? What things do I value?	Who am I? What am I worth? What is right and wrong? How do I decide what is right and wrong?  Aspects of local history  Links to talk expectations eg: agreeing and disagreeing  Growth mindset – developing resilience	What are feelings?  Don't we deserve to be happy? What should I do about right and wrong?  What do I deserve in life?  Who should I look up to?  What type of person do I want to be?  What difference does being loved make?  Is belief in something important?  What rights do I have?	Should you respect yourself over all other things?  Where does your identity come from?  Does more mean happier?  Is my understanding of self a selfish concept?  Are the opinions of my friends important to me?  Are my beliefs important?  Are characteristics inherited or learnt?
Transformation: Learning to live life: responding as a means of expressing an idea of self: developing a personal set of beliefs.
A growing awareness of knowing what I like and what I don't like both materially and in the way that I want to be treated.            Can say what I like and what I am good at.	An evolving awareness of the concept of self as more than purely physical characteristics. A growing realisation that being content with who you are is important for personal happiness.            Know how to apologise and to try again. Beginning to recognise mistakes and how to deal with them in a positive way.	The awareness that the growing development of a personal identity is an important aspect of being human. A growing realisation that an emphasis on self alone is not sufficient as a means of living out the self. An evolving sense of the concept of identity as more than purely physical characteristics or our likes and hobbies.            Can set goals for my work and behaviour that will help me to progress.	The awareness of the value of reflection to explore deeper responses to thoughts that help shapes the 'inner self'. An understanding that we express our personal values in the way that we approach our relationship with others and the world around us. The ability to express an interpretation of this verbally.            Can explain my opinions.

Reflection: Learning from life: understanding an awareness of the affect of others– a search for meaning, critical reasoning and big questions
What makes a good friend? Why are my friends important to me? What do I like in my friends? How do my friends make me feel? How do I look after my friends and family?	Why do people bully others? How do I treat others? Do I treat people in the same way? Should I treat everyone in the same way? Should I treat my friends differently to others? Why do we fight and argue? Should we always be loyal to our friends? How can I demonstrate compassion? How I can I demonstrate our School Values?	Why do people ignore others when they need help? Is being a good friend always easy? Why do we sometimes hurt the feelings of our friends and family? How can I care for those in need but I have never met? Will we ever live in a world without fighting? What responsibilities do I have for others? Understanding classroom and playground expectations.	Is it better to please oneself first or others? Why do people have to suffer? What is pain? Is there such a thing as a bad person? What is worth striving for? Why isn't life always fair? Is being fair always the right thing to do? Does more mean being happier?
Transformation: Learning to live life: responding as a means of expressing an idea of relationship with others: expressing innermost thoughts through words, art or actions.
Understanding that other people have their own views and opinions and may value different things to you.	A growing appreciation that the views and opinions of others should be listened to with respect whether those views are similar to your own or different.	Acknowledgement and respect for the rights of others to have their own deep thoughts that shape their inner self. A developing ability to enter into discussions with others about their values and opinions.	A growing empathy with the values of others and developing an understanding of the need to appreciate them to build meaningful relationships. A growing ability to express how understanding the value of others is an important part of building meaningful relationship
